Terramungamine Reserve. Dubbo. Oil on canvas

Giant Red Gum. Dubbo.

Red Gums on the Macquarie.

IN MY OWN WORDS

I have recently completed a series of plein air works of the river red gums along the Macquarie River at Dubbo.

I will reproduce one of these showing how I create form and depth using reflected lights, hard and soft edges and tonal recession.

JOHN enjoys painting the landscape in oils from life, en plein air, and engages in regular painting trips to country locations. He lives in the rural village of Mulgoa on the western fringes of Sydney with close access to the beautiful Hawkesbury district and the spectacular the Blue Mountains.

John has won many awards for his artworks and has held nineteen very successful solo exhibitions and numerous joint exhibitions. He has works in private collections throughout Australia and abroad and is a Fellow of the Royal Art Society of NSW.

John is a qualified teacher with over forty years' experience. He conducts regular workshops and demonstrations at his studio and for local, country and interstate art societies. He is also regularly called upon to judge art society exhibitions.

John Rice is represented by NWC Gallery, Katoomba.
